BOOK 35 MAGE 837

- A That's the main road that goes through Mt. Pleasant.
- Q Now, Mr. Lochner, are you familiar with this tract of land which is the subject matter of this suit?
 - A Well, partly, yes.
- Q How long have you been familiar with the property?
- A Well, all my life. Well, I'll say since 1921. I used to hunt back in there, but I helped George cut some wood back in there in the fall of 1921.
- Q Who was the owner of the property in 1921?
 - A George King.
- Q And do you know who Mr. King purchased the property from?
- A Well, from some Houck, but I don't know what Houck it was. Ezra Houck's place, was it, or his wife's, or somebody sold it to him.
- Q Have you ever worked on the property which is the subject matter of this suit?
- A Well, I helped him cut lumber and trees off of it in the fall of '71 and '72 in the spring.
- Q I show you the topographical plat prepared by Mr. Fowler. Is this the tract of land which Mr. King
